GURUDWARA BABA ATTAL RAI SAHIB

SRI HARIMANDIR SAHIB COMPLEX, AMRITSAR

Atal Rai Ji was the son of Guru Hargobind Sahib, Sixth Guru of the Sikhs, he was born to Mata Nanki Ji in Guru Ka Mahal, Amritsar in Samvat 1676. Besides him Guru Sahib had four sons

Baba Gurditta Ji	Samvat 1670	born to Mata Damodari Ji
Surajmal Ji	Samvat 1672	born to Mata Damodari Ji
Ani Rai Ji	Samvat 1675	born to Mata Damodari Ji
Teg Bahadur Ji	Samvat 1678	born to Mata Nanki Ji
		and one daughter
Bibi Veero Ji	Samvat 1672	born to Mata Damodari Ji.

From a very young age his heart used to be engrossed in devotion to the God. Often while playing with the children in the street he used to tell them spiritual stories and strengthen spiritual belief. Because of his knowledge he used to be called Baba Ji in young age.

Mohan was his very close friend. He often used to go to play with him. One night Mohan was bitten by a snake and could not survive, he died. Next morning when Mohan did not come for playing Atal Rai Ji went to his house with his companions, the house was grief stricken. When asked, the family members told that Mohan had died. He said that he is not dead and resurrected him by touching with his stick. Mohan got up. This incident reached Guru Hargobind Sahib also. He called Atal Rai Ji and said that this is a direct interference in the deed of the God. Atal Rai Ji realized his mistake, he sat in meditation and left the world.

Earlier there was a small Memorial at this place. The Sikhs started the construction of Gurudwara Sahib in Samvat 1807, then in Samvat 1878 Maharaja Ranjit Singh served it during the time of Dal Singh Singh Majithia.

Today this place embellishes an Octagonal and Nine-floored Gurudwara Sahib. Non-stop Langar is held at this place. This saying is prevalent among the masses: "Baba Atal send the already cooked".

The management of the Gurudwara Sahib is with Shiromani Gurudwara Prabandhak Committee, Shri Amritsar.
